FROM FR. DANIEL

My dear friends,

Happy Easter! The joy of the Resurrection continues to move our hearts as we come to close of the Easter Octave. This second Sunday of Easter has always had great importance for the Church, as we join our newly baptized members of the Body of Christ in their happiness, while also renewing our own gratitude for having been clad with the white garment of immortality.

In recent years, the Lord has inspired another reason for our paschal joy, as we celebrate today also the mystery of God's Divine Mercy. In truth, it is but one mystery: the mercy of the Lord is so great because of the power of the resurrection, and those who are reborn in the waters of Baptism experience this mercy and the life of the risen Christ in a unique way.

In this very important moment in the history of the Church, we continue to ask God to show his Divine Mercy to our Holy Father, Pope Francis, and to grant him eternal light, as we pray insistently that the cardinals will elect a shepherd according to the heart of the Good Shepherd.

With my prayers,

Fr. Daniel
